TUCSON WINS AGAIN

A Poor Ball Game Played Yesterday.

Gray Does Excellent Work in the Box.

Full Report of the Game by Innings.
The Final Game Will be Played Today.

About 300 persons went out to Patton's Park yesterday to see the ball game between Tucson and Phoenix. The day was all that could be desired, cloudy and cool. If the home pitcher had received anything like fair support they would have won, as Gray's feat of striking out ten men is something very seldom witnessed on the diamond.

Goldberg's poor backstop work accounts for the defeat of Phoenix and today he will probably play on the bench. Gray has a very deceptive curve and is a very speedy pitcher, too swift for Goldberg. The features of the game were Kibby's wonderful catch of H. Drachman's sky-scraper in the sixth, and Gray's pitching.

It was 2:30 when E. Drachman stepped to the bat, and a minute later he sent a single to center and stole second. Smith went out on Thoman's assist and Drachman went to third on the throw to third. W. Zabriskie was presented with first on called balls and a moment later stole second. H. Drachman following with a hit to left field for single, and stole second. Hutton was safe on Kibby's error. The bases were full when Pacho stepped to the plate and struck out. B. Zabriskie sent a hot one to right field for a single, bringing in Smith and W. Zabriskie. M. Drachman made a single and R. Rainsbury got first on called balls, forcing Hutton to score. Walbridge threw the ball to Widmer to catch Drachman sleeping at second, and Zabriskie scored.

For the home team, D. Goldberg opened up by hitting to Drachman, Gray duplicating it a moment later. Widmer flew to W. Zabriskie.

E. Drachman opened up the second inning for the visitors by dying at first. Smith hit a hot liner to left and stole second and third on Thoman's error. W. Zabriskie fanned the air and H. Drachman sent a sky-scraper to Thoman, retiring the side.

Thoman for the home team went out on W. Zabriskie's assist. Fowler struck out. Walbridge was safe on Smith's error, and stole second. McNulty flew to Hutton. No runs.

Third inning—For the Tucson's, Hutton went out on Walbridge's assist, Pacho got first on Goldberg's error, but died at second. B. Zabriskie went out trying to take a slice out of the air.

For the "Allstars" Kibby stepped to the plate with a look of determination that showed clearly that he meant business. He hit a hot grounder to right field, but failed to beat the ball to second and died. Goldberg bunted, but Drachman was too quick for him and got the ball to first ahead of him.

Fourth inning—For the visitors M. Drachman opened the fourth by taking first on being struck by the pitcher, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Rainsbury's single to left field. Rainsbury stole second and went to third on a passed ball. E. Drachman got first on Goldberg's error and stole second. F. Smith went to first on Goldberg's error and Rainsbury and E. Drachman tallied. Smith going to second on Goldberg's error, which was left field and M. Drachman followed with a single sending B. Zabriskie across the plate. M. Drachman taking second on the throw in, he stole third and scored on Rainsbury's single to left field. E. Drachman sent a sky-scraper to Thoman, retiring the side.

Thoman for the home team went out on W. Zabriskie's assist. Fowler struck out. Walbridge was safe on Smith's error, and stole second. McNulty flew to Hutton. No runs.

Third inning—For the Tucson's, Hutton went out on Walbridge's assist, Pacho got first on Goldberg's error, but died at second. B. Zabriskie went out trying to take a slice out of the air.

bury sent a single to center, Drachman going to third on Gray's error. E. Drachman sent an easy fly to Gray and M. Drachman scored. Rainsbury was caught napping at second and Smith struck out.

Widmer started the fun for the home team by taking first on a "dead" ball. Thoman was safe on Rainsbury's error. Widmer and Thoman each stole a bag, and Fowler struck out. Walbridge took first, being struck by a pitched ball. The bases were full now, but McNulty fanned the air and Kibby bunted. Widmer died at the plate, retiring the side.

W. Zabriskie started the ball rolling in the eighth by striking out. H. Drachman followed and took first on called balls, stole second, and advanced to third on a passed ball. Hutton struck out and H. Drachman died at the plate.

For the boys in white Downey flew to W. Zabriskie. Goldberg fouled to E. Drachman and Gray hit a two-bagger to right. Widmer struck out.

Ninth Inning—Pacho went out on Widmer's assist. B. Zabriskie made a single and scored on a passed ball. M. Drachman took first on called balls and stole second. Rainsbury got first on Goldberg's error. E. Drachman followed and flew to Widmer. M. Drachman beating the ball to the plate. Smith struck the air three times, retiring the side.

For the last half of the ninth, Thoman opened up by making a base hit and stealing second. Fowler sent a hot liner to W. Zabriskie who sent the ball in too hot for M. Drachman, who fumbled, allowing Fowler to gain the base. Walbridge gave E. Drachman an easy put-out and Thoman was caught napping at second. McNulty knocked out a stinging two-bagger to center, bringing home Fowler. Kibber flew to W. Zabriskie.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, October 18.—Trading in the street and stock market today clearly demonstrated the independence of the manipulators of the street from any and all circumstances which ought legitimately to have a bearing upon the real value of securities. Notwithstanding a loss in bank reserves of over $1,000,000, and the complete wiping out of the surplus, the market today was strong from start to finish, closing with material gains in many stocks. Advances were uniform in active stocks, but there was a pronounced movement in Citizens' gas of Brooklyn, which, after dropping to 88c, rose to $1.06. The final changes, with the exception noted, were fractions only, but were almost invariably in the direction of higher prices.
